FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

First Annual Trauma-Informed Care Partners Conference

Pensacola, Fla. (July 31, 2018) – Nationally acclaimed speakers will deliver powerful presentations that engage the entire Escambia County community in the practice of trauma-informed care. It starts with one caring adult and can turn around lives. Those who work with people who've experienced trauma are encouraged to attend Lakeview Center's First Annual Trauma-Informed Care Partners Conference.

Thanks to generous sponsors, the one-day event is open at no charge to anyone who wants to attend, and is recommended for the following: schools, law enforcement, churches, health care professionals, nonprofits, children's services agencies, juvenile justice agencies, parents, neighbors and the community-at-large. Online registration is required. Seats are limited.
