NAS PENSACOLA TO HOST SELECTED CHILDREN'S HOLIDAY PARTY

PENSACOLA, Fla. --- The Naval Air Station (NAS) Pensacola First Class Petty Officer Association is scheduled to host its annual Selected Children's Holiday Party at the Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) Department's Youth Center Gymnasium Dec. 7 at 9 a.m.

An estimated 100 children from four Pensacola-area elementary schools have been invited to the event, which is scheduled to include arts and crafts, lunch, the arrival of Santa Claus on a fire truck and gifts.

Naval Air Station Pensacola Commanding Officer Capt. Christopher Martin and command leadership are scheduled to hand out gifts at the conclusion of the three-hour event.

The NAS Pensacola FCPOA and other Department of Defense (DoD) personnel are scheduled to assist in escorting the visitors.
