

Kathy Sheppard has been an artist at Quayside Gallery for forty years . She works in watercolors, oils and colored pencils. She is known for intricate detail in botanicals, portraits, still lifes and for her serene landscapes. Her latest endeavor is photography. Birds, flowers and wildlife are her favorite subjects. She will have several new works of art which have never been shown . The show runs from June 6 thru July 16. A reception is Friday June 8 from 5 to 8 pm at the Gallery. The public is invited.