Pensacola State Vet Tech program to host symposium on July 25

Debbie Hill will be the guest speaker at Pensacola State College's Veterinary Practice Management Symposium set for 5-7 p.m. Wednesday, July 25.

"Finding and Keeping the Perfect Employee" and "Effectively Enforcing Employee Protocols" will be the topics of the symposium scheduled to be held in Building 3200, Room 3204 on the Warrington campus at 5555 W. Highway 98.

Hill, a certified veterinary practice manager, will discuss Sharing Success Management Solutions. Hill also is an administrator at Pet Care Hospital and has more than 20 years of experience working with large and small veterinary practices.

"This symposium is geared toward anyone interested in veterinary practice management," said Sarah Meyer-Paterson, director of the college's Veterinary Technology Program.

Sponsored by Elanco, the event also will include dinner. Attendees must RSVP by July 18 to nbrockett@pensacolastate.edu. For more information, call Sheila Nichols at 840-484-1428.
