

For Immediate Release

August 22, 2018

Contact: Kathy Summerlin
Pensacola Saenger Theatre
850-595-3882 office
850-207-7944 cell

Liberty Sertoma's Service to Mankind Award Presented to Sherri Hemminghaus Weeks

PENSACOLA, Fla. – Liberty Sertoma presented its Service to Mankind Award to Sherri Hemminghaus Weeks today at their bi-monthly program luncheon at the Pensacola Bay Center. Sertoma International's Service to Mankind Award is presented to non-Sertoma members based on their volunteer community service provided by the individual to the community, state, province or nation. The honor is voted on locally by a group of Sertomans and then the winners are sent for regional consideration and potential national awarding of the Service to Mankind Award.

Chairman of the Board, Christina Johnson, read the nomination to the members and guests present and President, Kathy Summerlin, presented the plaque to Weeks. After the presentation, Weeks commented "I would like to say that this recognition is shared with Jonathan and Kathy and the Friends of the Saenger Board members and everyone on all of the previous boards since 1981 that have helped me in the various Saenger roles I've played throughout the years" she continued "I also want to thank many of you in the audience for supporting our beautiful Saenger Theatre with your attendance and your donations."

In attendance were members, Christina Johnson, Kathy Summerlin, Teresa Shimek, Joan Fitzsimmons, Carol Ann Mackey, Kelli Taylor, Charla Del Marco, Charlotte Field, McGee Lorren, Cynthia Gulsby, Jacklyon Scrimshire, Linda Webb and guests Bobbi Kramer, Jonathan Thompson, Trish Gross, Sherri Hemminghaus Weeks, and Dolores de la Rua Hayes.

###