Sacred Heart Names Ob/Gyn Residency Program Director

PENSACOLA, Fla. — Dr. Suzanne Bush has been selected to serve as Ob/Gyn residency program director for Sacred Heart Health System.

Dr. Bush has worked with Sacred Heart's Ob/Gyn residency program since 1990 and held active leadership roles since 2006. In that time, she has won numerous teaching awards in both medical student and resident education. She has written several publications specific to teaching in the clinical setting. Dr. Bush has served as Ob/Gyn educational director and as clerkship director for undergraduate medical education through Florida State University.

She graduated with her medical degree from the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Medicine. She completed her residency training in obstetrics and gynecology at Sacred Heart Hospital Pensacola and Tulane Charity Hospital in New Orleans. Dr. Bush is board-certified in obstetrics and gynecology and is a North American Menopause Society Certified Practitioner.

Sacred Heart's Ob/Gyn residency program is affiliated with the University of Florida College of Medicine. As Northwest Florida's only Ob/Gyn residency program, Sacred Heart stays on the leading edge of health research and provides the latest treatment options, even for rare conditions.

Sacred Heart Hospital in Pensacola is a 566-bed regional medical center that was founded by the Daughters of Charity in 1915. The hospital offers a Level II Trauma Center, a Cancer Center affiliated with MD Anderson Cancer Network, a Heart and Vascular Institute, The Studer Family Children's Hospital at Sacred Heart, the regional center for high-risk pregnancy and the area's most preferred Maternity and Women's Center.
