

EMMANUEL SHEPPARD & CONDON

ATTORNEYS AT LAW SINCE 1913

Emmanuel Sheppard and Condon recently hosted Introductory Collaborative Law Training presented by West Florida Collaborative Law, Inc. in which local family law attorneys, mental health professionals, and financial professionals learned how a Collaborative Divorce provides an alternative way for families to resolve their family law matters outside of the court system.

If you would like to learn more on how a Collaborative Divorce can enable you to avoid the negative effects of litigation and proceed in an amicable and efficient manner with the assistance of trained professionals who will work together to achieve the goals of your family, please contact Galen M. Novotny at 850.433.6581 or gnovotny@esclaw.com
