

Daniel Harrell Named Chair of Clark Partington's General Litigation Department

Clark Partington is pleased to announce that Shareholder Daniel Harrell has been named Chair of the firm's General Litigation Department. As head of the General Litigation Department, Daniel will serve on the firm's Executive Committee and oversee 15 attorneys handling construction litigation, personal injury litigation, employment litigation, and a wide array of other litigation issues commonly handled by our attorneys. Taking on this role, Daniel looks forward to "continuing Clark Partington's track record of providing exceptional litigation services for our clients."

Daniel has extensive litigation experience, having tried numerous cases before both judges and juries in both Florida and Alabama. Daniel's practice focuses primarily on employment and restrictive covenant litigation. For his excellence in litigation, Daniel has been recognized as an AV-rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell, a Florida Super Lawyer, an Alabama Super Lawyer, and an "Up and Comer" by Florida Trend's Legal Elite magazine.

Outside of the office, Daniel serves as Chair of the Board of Trustees for Episcopal Day School in Pensacola and is the Vice-President of the Pensacola Chapter of the Washington and Lee University Alumni Association.
