Tuesday, February 5, 2019, 6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Switzer Gallery and Lamar Studio, Pensacola State College Visual Arts Department
1000 Collage Blvd., Bldg. #15, Room 1513, Pensacola, FL 32504
(on the corner of 9th and Airport Blvd.)

This program is free and open to the public; however, RSVP would be appreciated by e-mail to info@jasnwfl.org or telephone at (850) 602-7049.

Masayoshi Shimizu from Wakayama, Japan will talk about the wood-fired arts and will give a gallery talk on his works currently displayed at the Switzer Gallery and Lamar Studio, Pensacola State College Visual Arts Department (PSC). PSC is hosting the exhibit, “BEAUTY IN USE: CELEBRATING JAPANESE CULTURAL TRADITIONS” from January 22 through June 27. Shimizu is currently visiting the Gulf Coast Kiln Walk Society located in Navarre for five weeks. He has been touring and teaching along the Gulf Coast, hosted by the Kiln Walk Society.

The Japan-America Society of Northwest Florida (www.jasnwfl.org) thanks the National Association of Japan-America Societies, Pensacola State College Visual Arts Department and the Gulf Coast Kiln Walk Society for the support that made our Speakers' Program possible.
