

LandrumHR Announces New Business Consultant

LandrumHR, a professional employer organization (PEO) in the Southeast, is excited to announce Kristy Swanson has accepted the position of Business Consultant. In this role, Swanson's goal is to consult with business owners in Northwest Florida and Alabama to help them maximize their organization's growth and productivity.

Her 13 years of account management experience has given her an in-depth knowledge of operations management and business initiatives. Kristy, originally from Birmingham, Alabama, has built solid relationships in her career within the insurance, staffing, and pharmaceutical industries.

Jerold Hall, Director of Business Development, said, "We are so excited to have Kristy join our team of Business Consultants. Her background and experience managing different aspects of small businesses allows her to quickly identify areas where businesses can save time and money while reducing risks. She has a proven track record of success and we're so excited to see the value she will bring to our clients."

Readers are encouraged to connect on LinkedIn with LandrumHR. Kristy can be found on LinkedIn and she looks forward to talking about her new position as well as the services she intends to pursue moving forward in her career at LandrumHR.
