

LandrumHR Names New Director of Staffing

LandrumHR, a PEO and full-service HR outsourcing company, is proud to announce the addition of a new member to its management team. James “Jim” Howe has been appointed Director of Staffing.

This addition will support the staffing division and LandrumHR’s ability to deliver innovative talent solutions that allow clients to reach their current and future goals.

Howe brings 25 years of extensive knowledge in sales, recruitment, and client-minded operational strategies. He most recently led several branch offices for a national recruitment company located in Chicago. He played an integral role in redefining their service delivery model by aligning the clients’ needs within current market conditions. The combination of these factors resulted in placing talented candidates quickly, and creating a high level of employee retention and reducing turnover.

Mandy Sacco, Vice President of Staffing for LandrumHR, said, “We were fortunate to find Jim. His extensive background in the staffing industry, leadership qualities, and positive attitude were exactly what we were looking for. As LandrumHR continues to grow, it’s important we have a team of strong leaders. Jim is a great addition to our team.”

Howe says, “I was looking for a company that aligned with my values and also believed that great companies are really a collection of a lot of great people that are bonded by a culture of working together to help others. LandrumHR, for over 48 years, has been the leader in the Florida Panhandle when it comes to helping people find work and helping companies solve their Human Resource issues. I couldn’t think of a better place for me. I’m truly excited to be a part of the LandrumHR family!”

Jim’s primary responsibilities are managing and leading LandrumHR’s staffing team to achieve higher client satisfaction and streamlining processes for a better candidate experience. Howe will also be a key player in the company’s strategic growth and diversification in industries served as the staffing division expands throughout the Southeast.

LandrumHR offers full-service HR outsourcing, consulting, and staffing. It has six locations throughout the Southeast.
