NEWS RELEASE

Feb. 5, 2019

Input Requested for Upcoming Academic Year Calendar Survey Participation Encouraged for 2023-24 School Year Calendar

Pensacola, FL: The Escambia County School District is seeking input from students, parents, teachers, employees, community members, and other stakeholders as work begins to develop the proposed academic year calendar for the 2023-2024 school year.

Families and District employees will receive a phone call from Malcolm Thomas, Escambia County School Superintendent, on 2/5/19 with a recorded message about the survey process.

In the message, Superintendent Thomas will say, "I encourage you to participate in this process by reviewing the draft proposals and taking a brief survey regarding each proposal. Survey results will be analyzed and shared with the District Calendar Committee, comprised of representatives from all stakeholder groups."

The committee's final recommendation for the 2023-24 Academic Year Calendar will be on the agenda for the March 26, 2019 Regular School Board Meeting.

The survey links, along with two draft proposals, are located on the Escambia County School District website main page at: www.escambiaschools.net. The survey will close on 2/19/19.

Media queries about this release should be directed to Kim Stefansson, at 850-469-6219 or kstefansson@escambia.k12.fl.us.
