Orange Blossom Special* mini-train rides departing from Pensacola Children's Museum Saturdays in August

Created especially for kids aged five and up, the train rides—with a fun-filled, interactive history lesson led by storyteller Paul Morrell—depart every half hour between 10am-2pm on Saturdays

July 20, 2018 (Pensacola, Fla.) — Honoring a real train from Florida's history, the Winterfest reproduction mini-train, dubbed the Orange Blossom Special until mid-Nov., departs from the Pensacola Children's Museum every half hour on Saturdays through Nov. 10 for ten-minute rides through historic downtown Pensacola, preceded by a fun, interactive program led by storyteller Paul Morrell. Tickets are $5 each for children and include one free adult ticket.

The experience is geared for children ages 5 and up, and an early learning music specialist from the Escambia County District Schools, dressed as a railroad engineer, is part of the pre-ride fun. The unique program educates children in a fun, interactive way, covering the fascinating history of the original Orange Blossom Special and the roots of the railroading industry in Pensacola and the state of Florida. There are music, sing-alongs and magic tricks in addition to the 10-minute train ride, and each child earns an official "Junior Engineer," badge and a wooden toy railroad whistle.
