Carolyn Goldstein on the Move at Blues Angel Music

PENSACOLA, FL, September 17, 2018: After starting as an administrator on July 9th, Carolyn Goldstein has been promoted to division manager of the Blues Angel School of Music as of Friday, September 14th.

“Carolyn is a welcomed addition to the team at the Blues Angel School of Music,” said Nan DeStafney, CEO of Blues Angel Music. “She’s already made great changes to our processes and protocols. We’ve been really impressed, and we’re looking forward to a great future together.”

Goldstein earned a bachelor of music in violin performance and music history, and a master of arts in arts administration from Syracuse University. Carolyn and her husband moved to Pensacola this summer from Syracuse, New York.

She has been a gigging violinist since high school, and was a member of the Pike String Quartet in Syracuse, but she’s not yet found a group to play with in Pensacola.

Of the move and experience, “I discovered a passion for the business side of the music industry while working on my master’s degree. The wonderful work atmosphere created by my coworkers is one of a kind. I was delighted to become a member of the BAM [Blues Angel Music] family in July.”
