Case Manager Achieves Outstanding Youth Award

Pensacola, Fla. (September 19, 2018) – Chelsea Bramblett, child welfare case manager at FamiliesFirst Network (FFN) of Lakeview Center, was recognized with the Outstanding Youth Award during the recent Florida Coalition for Children Conference.

The award recognizes someone for striving to make life better for foster youth. Bramblett was acknowledged for selflessly sharing her personal experience in foster care with other youth who are aging out of the system to help them gain independence, confidence and success. Her support, encouragement and guidance are making a difference in young lives.

Bramblett has been at Lakeview Center since 2017 primarily working as a family support worker until she took on the role of child welfare case manager for FFN Young Adult Services.

Bramblett has a Bachelor's degree from the University of West Florida.
