

Quayside Art Gallery announces “Mix it Up!” exhibits presented by three local artists: Sara Lynn Heller, Pat Page and Nancy Schrock. “Mix it Up!” reflects the diversity of artistic media and styles of the three artists.

Sarah Lynn Heller is a watercolor artist who gives personality to Florida beach subjects like oysters, starfish, crabs, and flamingos.

Pat Page is a native of Pensacola and loves to work in watercolor and mixed media. Her “Old Pensacola Lost (and found)” compositions incorporate photos of historical places that evoke nostalgia in long-time residents.

Nancy Schrock’s favorite medium is colored pencil which she layers to give realistic still life drawings.

The exhibit runs through April 27, 2018, and you are invited to enjoy these and other artists and mediums.

Quayside Gallery is located at 17 E Zarragossa Street. The gallery is open Monday through Saturday from 10:00am-5:00pm, and Sunday 1:00pm-5:00pm.
