Zarzur Receives Award for Pro Bono Work

Northwest Florida Legal Services recognizes Joe Zarzur for distinguished service.

PENSACOLA, Fla. (Nov. 1, 2018) — Joe Zarzur, a Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyer and founder of Zarzur Law, P.A., was presented with a Certificate of Commendation for Northwest Florida Legal Services, Inc. during its October meeting, for his Pro Bono work for the program during 2018.

“Legal Graffiti,” one of the programs led by Zarzur, is an event hosted at Zarzur Law during each Gallery Night in downtown Pensacola. “Legal Graffiti” is an opportunity for anyone to make a donation and then create artwork on the recycled billboard vinyl covered side of the Zarzur Law office building using spray paint. The event raises money for non-profits & charities within the area. Donations are matched by the firm and given to the charity of choice, including Northwest Florida Legal Services, Inc.

Mr. Zarzur also accepted a pro bono case from Northwest Florida Legal Services, Inc. for a client who suffered from physical disabilities. The client was traveling the street in his neighborhood in his electric wheelchair when he was struck by a truck. His wheelchair was destroyed and he was injured. Mr. Zarzur took his case and was able to represent the client and help him get the compensation he deserved in a timely manner.

“The client received a new wheelchair and was compensated for medical damages and was able to resume his life.” Doug White, Executive Director of Northwest Florida Legal Services. “Mr. Zarzur helped the client regain his mobility and independence.”
