PenAir launches 3rd Annual Snack Stock Drive with Community Partners

PENSACOLA, FL – May 1, 2025 – PenAir Credit Union (PenAir) has launched its Third Annual Snack Stock drive, collecting individually wrapped snacks for local cancer patients throughout May. At a joint press conference on April 28 at its Nine Mile Branch, PenAir announced partnerships with Quint Studer, Bubba Watson, and the Pensacola Blue Wahoos to expand support for patients undergoing treatment at Ascension Sacred Heart in Pensacola.

“At PenAir, Communerosity® is at the heart of everything we do, where community and generosity blend into something enduring,” said Lee Morgan, President & CEO of PenAir. “We’re thrilled to join forces with local partners to support local individuals and their families battling cancer.”

Will Condon, President & CEO of Ascension Sacred Heart, added, “This is a very vulnerable population, and what Snack Stock allows us to do is make sure our patients are more comfortable during chemotherapy treatments at our Cancer Center.”

Since 2023, PenAir has helped organize the donation of over 8,000 individually wrapped items to Sacred Heart’s Cancer Center, benefiting patients and their families.

“Dealing with cancer myself right now, I know personally how difficult it can be,” said Quint Studer, founder of Studer Community Institute and Co-Owner of the Blue Wahoos. “We’re really grateful and honored to be partnering with PenAir.”

Starting May 1, donations can be made at any PenAir branch or Pensacola Blue Wahoos home game through May 31. Accepted items include single-serving snacks like chips, pretzels, popcorn, cookies, crackers, protein bars, and fruit cups.
